

Jason A. Gilmore

Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Communication Studies
Utah State University • Logan, Utah 84322-0720
jason.gilmore@usu.edu

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy, University of Washington, 2013

Department of Communication

Dissertation: The world's "exceptional" neighbor: Comparative perspectives on American exceptionalism in presidential discourse and the effects at home and abroad

Master of Social Science, University of Colorado at Denver, 2007

Department of Humanities and Social Sciences – International Studies

Thesis: Hearts and minds: An analysis of Mexico's cultivated image for promotion in the United States.

Bachelor of Arts, University of Colorado at Denver, 1999

Department of International Studies

Capstone thesis: Analysis of Mexican political parties in the 1997 elections.

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

Utah State University, Department of Languages, Philosophy and Communication Studies

- Associate Professor of Global Communication, July 2020 to Present
- Assistant Professor of Global Communication, August 2014 to June 2020
 - Courses Taught:
 - Introduction to Global Communication
 - Advanced Perspectives in Global Communication
 - Intercultural Communication
 - Culture and Public Discourse

University of Washington, Department of Communication

- Adjunct Lecturer, Autumn 2012 to Autumn 2013
- Instructor of Record, Autumn 2010 to Autumn 2012
- Teaching Assistant, Autumn 2008 to Autumn 2012
- Research Assistant, Autumn 2009 to Spring 2010

Seattle University, Department of Communication Studies

- Adjunct Lecturer, Autumn 2012

Cascadia Community College

- Adjunct Lecturer, Autumn 2013 to Spring 2014

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS¹

Peer Reviewed Book

Gilmore, J., and Rowling, C.M. (March 11, 2021). Exceptional Me: How Donald Trump exploited the discourse of American exceptionalism. London, UK: I.B. Tauris/Bloomsbury.

Refereed Journal Articles

Gilmore, J., Rowling, C.M., Edwards, J.A., and Allen, N.T. (2020). Exceptional 'we' or exceptional 'me'? Donald Trump, American exceptionalism and the remaking of the modern jeremiad. Presidential Studies Quarterly.

Gilmore, J. and Rowling, C.M. (2019). Partisan patriotism in the American presidency: American exceptionalism, issue ownership, and the age of Trump. Mass Communication and Society, 22(3), 389-416.

Dengah II, H., Gilmore, J., Brasileiro, M., Cohen, A., Thomas, E., Budge, J., Law, M., Swainston, J., and Thomas, R. (2019). Cultural models of raça: The calculus of Brazilian racial identity revisited. Journal of Anthropological Research, 75(2), 157-182.

Gilmore, J. and Rowling, C.M. (2018). Lighting the beacon: Presidential discourse, American exceptionalism, and public diplomacy in global contexts. Presidential Studies Quarterly, 48 (2), 271-291.

Rowling, C. M., Sheets, P., McCue, P., and Gilmore, J. (2018). Consensus at home, opposition abroad: Officials, foreign sources, and U.S. news coverage of drone warfare. Journalism and Mass Communication Quarterly, 95(4), 886-908.

Gilmore, J., and Rowling, C.M. (2018). A post-American world? Assessing the cognitive and attitudinal impacts of challenges to American exceptionalism. The Communication Review, 21 (1), 46-65.

Gilmore, J. and Rowling, C. M. (2017). The United States in decline?: Assessing the impacts of international challenges to American exceptionalism. International Journal of Communication, 11 (21), 137-157.

Gilmore, J., Sheets, P., and Rowling, C. M. (2016). Make no exception, save one: American exceptionalism and its culmination in the age of Obama. Communication Monographs, 83 (4), 505-520.

Rowling, C. M., Gilmore, J., and Sheets, P. (2015). When threats are internal: Cascading frames, national identity, and the U.S. war in Afghanistan. International Journal of Press/Politics, 20

¹ All entries were selected through blind peer review.

(4), 478-497.

Gilmore, J. (2015). American exceptionalism in the American mind: Presidential discourse, national identity and U.S. public opinion. Communication Studies, 66(3), 301-320 (Selected as the 2016 Communication Studies Article of the Year presented by the Central States Communication Association).

Gilmore, J. (2014). Translating American exceptionalism: Presidential discourse about the United States in comparative perspective. International Journal of Communication, 9 (22), 2416-2437.

Gilmore, J., Meeks, L. & Domke, D. (2013). Why do (we think) they hate us?: National identity, news content and attributions of blame. International Journal of Communication, 7(21), 701-721.

Gilmore, J. (2012). Ditching the pack: Digital media in the 2010 Brazilian congressional campaigns. New Media and Society, 14(4), 617-633.

Book Chapters

Gastil, J., Knobloch, K., and Gilmore, J. (2017). The internal dynamics and political power of small group political deliberation. In K. Kenski and K. Hall Jamieson (eds.), The Oxford Handbook of Political Communication, Oxford, UK: Oxford University Press.

Gilmore, J., & Howard, P. N. (2014). Digital media use and sophistication in the 2010 national elections in Brazil. In B. Grofman and A. Treschel, The Internet and Democracy in Global Perspective: Voters, Candidates, Parties, and Social Movements, Berlin, Germany: Springer-Verlag.

Reprinted Manuscripts

Gilmore, J., Meeks, L. & Domke, D. (2016). Why do (we think) they hate us?: National identity, news content and attributions of blame. In W. Jia (Ed.), Intercultural Communication: Adapting to Emerging Global Realities (pp. 437-460). San Diego, CA: Cognella. (Reprinted from International Journal of Communication, 7, 21)

MANUSCRIPTS UNDER REVIEW

Sheets, P., Rowling, C. M., and Gilmore, J. (2020). Us and them: Social identity, framing effects and public opinion in response to US/UK military atrocities. Manuscript under revise and resubmit at Mass Communication and Society.

Rowling, C.M., Gilmore, J. (2020) A clarification of the Israel Lobby argument: An analysis of U.S. political and news discourse surrounding the 2006 Israel-Lebanon War. Manuscript in under review at Mass Communication and Society.

RESEARCH PROJECTS IN PROGRESS

Rowling, C. M., Gilmore, J., and Sheets, P. (2020). Managing atrocity: National identity and strategic political communication, from My Lai to Abu Ghraib. Manuscript in preparation.

CONFERENCE PAPERS AND PANELS

Sheets, P., Rowling, C. M., and Gilmore, J. (2019). Us and them: Social identity, framing effects and public opinion in response to US/UK military atrocities. Paper presented at the International Studies Association Annual Conference, Toronto, CA (Competitively selected).

Gilmore, J., Rowling, C.M., and Vance, M. (2018, November). Partisan patriotism in the American presidency: American exceptionalism, issue ownership, and the age of Trump. Paper presented to the Political Communication Division at the National Communication Association Annual Conference, Salt Lake City, UT (Competitively selected. Top Paper Panel in the Political Communication Division).

Gilmore, J., Edwards, J., and Rowling, C.M. (2018, November). Exceptional 'we' or exceptional 'me'? : Donald Trump, American exceptionalism and the remaking of the modern jeremiad. Paper presented to the Political Communication Division at the National Communication Association Annual Conference, Salt Lake City, UT (Competitively selected).

Stanley, N., Rowling, C.M., Gilmore, J., Sheets, P. (2017, November). Ethnocentrism in the news: A comparative analysis of U.S. vs. UK news coverage of civilian deaths caused by U.S. drone strikes, 2008-2016. Paper presented at the International Studies Association Midwest Conference, St. Louis, MO (Competitively selected).

Gilmore, J., and Rowling, C.M. (2017, November). Lighting the beacon: Presidential discourse and American exceptionalism in global contexts. Paper presented to the Political Communication Division at the National Communication Association Annual Conference, Dallas, TX (Competitively selected).

Sheets, P., Rowling, C. M., and Gilmore, J. (2017, September). Identity-protective media coverage of military crisis: an international media effects study. Paper presented at the 2017 European Consortium of Political Research (ECPR) General Conference, Oslo, Norway.

Gilmore, J., Sheets, P., and Rowling, C. M. (2016, November). The culmination of American exceptionalism in the age of Obama: Presidential discourse, national crises, and challenges to patriotism. Paper presented to the National Communication Association Annual Conference, Philadelphia, PA (Competitively selected. Top Paper Panel in the Political Communication Division).

Gilmore, J. (2016, November). Assessing the impacts of challenges to American identity. Invited panelist for the International Studies Association Midwest Annual Conference, St. Louis, MO (Competitively selected panel).

- Gilmore, J. (2016, March). Speaking American exceptionalism to the world: Presidential discourse about the United States in Global Contexts. Paper presented at the International Studies Association Annual Conference, Atlanta, GA (Competitively selected).
- Gilmore, J., and Rowling, C.M. (2016, March). U.S. in decline?: U.S. political discourse, challenges to American exceptionalism, and U.S. Public Opinion. Paper presented at the International Studies Association Annual Conference, Atlanta, GA (Competitively selected).
- Rowling, C.M., Sheets, P., Gilmore, J. (2016, March). Managing atrocity: National identity and strategic political communication, from My Lai to Abu Ghraib. Paper presented at the International Studies Association Annual Conference, Atlanta, GA (Competitively selected).
- Gilmore, J., and Rowling, C.M. (2015, November). A post American world?: Testing the impacts of international challenges to American exceptionalism. Paper accepted to the National Communication Association Annual Conference, Las Vegas, NV (Competitively selected).
- Gilmore, J., and Rowling, C.M. (2015, February). Number 1 no longer?: International political discourse, challenges to American exceptionalism, and U.S. public opinion. Paper presented at the International Studies Association (ISA) Annual Conference, New Orleans, LA (Competitively selected).
- Rowling, C.M., McCue, P., and Gilmore, J. (2015, April) Revising the Israel Lobby hypothesis: An analysis of U.S. political and news discourse surrounding the 2006 Israel-Lebanon War. Paper presented to the Western Political Science Association Conference in Las Vegas, NV (Competitively selected).
- Gilmore, J. (2014, May). American exceptionalism in the American mind: Presidential discourse, national identity and U.S. foreign policy. Paper presented to the Political Communication Division, International Communication Association (ICA) Annual Conference, Seattle, WA (Competitively selected).
- Rowling, C. M., Gilmore, J., and Sheets, P. (2014, March). When threats are internal: Cascading frames, national identity, and the U.S. war in Afghanistan. Paper presented at the International Studies Association, Toronto (Competitively selected).
- Gilmore, J. (2013, November). Translating American exceptionalism: Presidential discourse about the United States in comparative perspective. Paper presented to the Mass Communication Division, National Communication Association (NCA) Annual Conference, Washington, D.C. (Competitively selected).
- Gilmore, J. (2013, May). American exceptionalism, presidential discourse, and the American mind. Accepted for presentation at the American Association of Public Opinion Researchers (APOR), Boston, MA (Competitively selected).

Gilmore, J. (2012, February). The 'exceptional' neighbor: Invocations and effects of American exceptionalism in the U.S., Canada and Mexico. Presentation at the Pacific NW Canadian Studies Consortium, Seattle Washington (Invited panelist).

Gilmore, J. (2011, November). Ditching the pack: Digital media in the 2010 Brazilian congressional campaigns. Paper presented to the Political Communication Division, National Communication Association (NCA), New Orleans, LA (Competitively selected).

Gilmore, J. (2011, May). Digital media and the 2010 Brazilian national elections. Paper presented to the Conference on Internet, Voting and Democracy by the Center for the Study of Democracy (at the University of California at Irvine), Laguna Beach, CA (Invited panelist).

Gilmore, J., and Meeks, L. (2010, November). Why do (we think) they hate us?: National identity, news content and attributions of blame. Paper presented to the Political Communication Division, National Communication Association (NCA), San Francisco, CA (Competitively selected, Top Student Paper).

Gilmore, J., and Meeks, L. (2010, August). Anti-Americanism in the American mind. Paper presented to the Communication Theory and Methodology Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC) National Conference, Denver, CO (Competitively selected, Top Student Paper).

Gilmore, J. (2010, March). Social identity theory in communication research. Lead organizer and participant, panel on the uses of social identity theory in communication research for the Mass Communication and Society Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC) midwinter conference, Norman, OK.

AWARDS, HONORS, & GRANTS

Research

Top Paper Panel Award, Political Communication Division, National Communication Association, (first author with Charles Rowling and Miranda Vance), 2018.

Top Paper Panel Award, Political Communication Division, National Communication Association, (first author with Penelope Sheets and Charles Rowling), 2016.

Article of the Year, Communication Studies (Journal), for "American exceptionalism in the American mind: Presidential discourse, national identity and U.S. public opinion" presented by the Central States Communication Association, 2016.

Top Student Paper Award, Political Communication Division, National Communication Association (first author with Lindsey Meeks), 2010.

Top Student Paper Award, Communication Theory and Methodology Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, (first author with Lindsey Meeks), 2010.

Teaching

Teacher of the Year, awarded by the Department of Language, Philosophy, and Communication Studies, Utah State University, 2017-2018

Finalist Top Three, Teacher of the Year, College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Utah State University, 2017-2018.

President's Diversity Award, awarded to one Utah State University faculty member for championing issues of diversity and inclusion in the university community and beyond, 2016-2017.

Faculty Escort for College Valedictorian (Kelci Peterson), Utah State University, 2017.

Dean's Giraffe Award, awarded for innovation and risk taking in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, 2016.

Nominated, Dean's Giraffe Award for innovation and risk taking in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences in 2015, 2016, and 2017.

Other Honors and Awards

Second Place for a Radio Documentary, Society of Professional Journalists, Utah Chapter, Radio Series, "King's Road: Where Do We Go From Here?," 2019. Work done with significant input of students from Utah State University.

First Place for a Radio Series, Society of Professional Journalists, Utah Chapter, Radio Series, "54 Strong: Women of the Civil Rights Movement," 2017. Work done with significant input of students from Utah State University, Bellevue College, and the University of Washington.

Third Place for a Radio Series, Society of Professional Journalists, Utah Chapter, Radio Series, "Roots of Brazil," 2017. Work done with significant input from students from Utah State University.

First Place for a Radio Series, Society of Professional Journalists, Utah Chapter, Radio Series, "52 Strong: A Civil Rights Pilgrimage," 2016. Work done with significant input from students from Utah State University.

Grants

USU Diversity and Inclusion Grant, to partially fund the Spring 2017 and Spring 2018 USU Civil Rights Pilgrimages (Grant Director $7,800).

CHaSS Civil Rights Pilgrimage Grant, to partially fund the Spring 2017 and Spring 2018 USU Civil Rights Pilgrimages (Grant Director $3,900).

International Initiative Grant, Exploring Identity through Difference: An Immersive Experience of Race and Class in Brazil, 12 students to Salvador, Brazil. College of Humanities and Social Sciences (Co-director with Francois Dengah and Marcus Brasileiro, $55,000), 2015.

Research Services Council Collaborative Research Grant (with Charles Rowling, lead investigator, and Penelope Sheets, $5000), 2015.

Dissertation Research Grant, Department of Communication, funded dissertation fieldwork in Guanajuato, Mexico, (principal investigator, $1400), 2012.

UW International Research Grant, grant was to fund research on the use of new media in the 2010 Brazilian national elections in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (co-investigator with Phillip Howard, $3500), 2010.

Janice and William Ames Endowment for Research on Diversity and Difference, University of Washington (principal investigator, $225), 2009.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR GENERAL READERS/LISTENERS

Public Radio

“King’s Road: Where Do We Go From Here?” Produced, wrote, and reported four episodes for the series with five USU students for Utah Public Radio. Aired between April 1 and April 30, 2018.

“Roots of Brazil.” Produced, wrote, and reported four episodes for the series with three USU students while in Salvador, Brazil for Utah Public Radio. Aired between August 1 and August 30, 2016.

“Women, Music, and Civil Rights.” Radio report and interview with Billie Jean Young, Carolyn McKinstry and Chloe Copoloff for Utah Public Radio. Part three of a four part series focused on the women of civil rights. Aired between March 29 and April 1, 2016.

“Protecting and Marching with Martin Luther King Jr.” Radio report and interview with Theresa Burroughs for Utah Public Radio. Part three of a four part series focused on the women of civil rights. Aired between March 22 and 25, 2016.

“The Impact of Young Women During the Civil Rights Movement.” Radio report and interview with Carolyn McKinstry for Utah Public Radio. Part two of a four part series focused on the women of civil rights. Aired between March 15 and 18, 2016.

“The Equal Justice Initiative in Montgomery, Alabama.” Radio report and interview with Nia Holston for Utah Public Radio. Part one of a four part series focused on the women of civil rights. Aired between March 8 and 11, 2016.

“Civil rights means rights for all.” Radio report and interview with Bob Zellner, first white field secretary of SNCC during the civil rights movement filed for Utah Public Radio. Aired on March 13 and 14, 2015.

“Bloody Sunday in Selma.” Radio report on the 50th Anniversary of the Selma to Montgomery march and Bloody Sunday filed for Utah Public Radio. Aired on March 9 and 10, 2015.

“Remembering the Freedom Riders of Montgomery Alabama.” Radio report and interview with Freedom Rider Bernard Lafayette Jr., filed for Utah Public Radio. Aired on March 4, 2015.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENTS AND MEDIA APPEARANCES

Public Talks

“The Culture of Inclusion and How to be an Upstander.” Invited to address incoming undergraduate cohort of Utah State University in Logan, Utah. August 2020.

“Creating a Culture of Inclusion on College Campuses.” Invited to address incoming undergraduate cohort of Utah State University in Logan, Utah. August 2019.

“Communicating Identity and Difference.” Invited talk for a joint session of Hispanic students from Ridgeline and Mountain Crest High Schools in Logan, Utah. January 30, 2018.

“Communicating Difference, Discord, and Reconciliation.” Invited talk for the annual Bennion Teachers Workshop of the Mountain West Center for Regional Studies. June 29, 2017.

“The Whole World is Watching: American Exceptionalism and Patriotism in the Era of Trump.” Invited talk. University of Washington, Seattle, WA, May 11, 2017.

“The Whole World is Watching: American Exceptionalism and Patriotism in the Era of Trump.” Invited talk. University of Nebraska, Kearney, NE, February 23, 2017.

“Communicating Difference in a Global Era.” Invited talk given to the Utah State University Emeriti Association. Utah State University, January 16, 2017.

“Roots of Brazil: Exploring Identity Through Difference.” A CHaSS and Utah Public Radio sponsored public talk including presentations from USU undergraduate students. Over 300 in attendance. Utah State University, October 5, 2016.

“Sticking Your Neck Out.” Speech to be given at the Light on the Hill event. USU College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Utah State University, August 30, 2016.

“The Whole World is Watching: Global Media and the Civil Rights Movement.” A CHaSS Week sponsored public talk including presentations by USU undergraduate students. Over 350 in attendance. Utah State University, April 7, 2016.

“The Long View on Civil Rights: American Exceptionalism, Discourse and Difference.” A CHaSS Week sponsored public talk including presentations by USU undergraduate students. Over 300 in attendance. Utah State University, March 25, 2015.

Invited Public Panels

“Facticity Series: Truth or Consequences.” Invited panelist to discuss the evolving meaning of “truth” after the 2016 elections. Utah State University, November 14, 2017.

“A Retrospective Analysis of the 2016 Election.” Invited panelist discussing strategic political messaging in the 2016 election. Utah Valley University, February 7, 2017.

“Perspectives on Election 2016: Opportunities and Challenges for a New Era.” Invited panelist discussing the 2016 election and its impact on the future of communication and politics in the United States. Utah State University, February 1, 2017.

Media Appearances

“Disengagement from the News and Politics.” Utah Public Radio. Invited panelist on Access Utah to talk about political disengagement. October 8, 2019.

“Best of Access Utah on Reaching Across the Aisle.” Utah Public Radio. Invited panelist on Access Utah to talk about reaching across the political aisle. March 21, 2019.

“Best of Access Utah on Social Issues.” Utah Public Radio. Interviewed on Access Utah about the national debates about free speech in sports and on campuses. September 13, 2018.

“Best of Access Utah: Current Events and Free Speech.” Utah Public Radio. Interviewed on Access Utah about the national debates about free speech in sports and on campuses. September 21, 2017.

“Utah Reactions to the events in Charlottesville.” Utah Public Radio. Invited panelist on Access Utah panel to discuss free speech, hate groups, and racism in America. August 17, 2017.

“Protests and Social Movements in the New Era.” Utah Public Radio. Participated in an Access Utah panel discussion about social movements past, present, and future. February 10, 2017.

“Elections 2016: Opportunities and Challenges for a New Era.” Utah Public Radio. Participated in an Access Utah panel discussion about the 2016 elections. January 31, 2017.

“Race, Police, Patriotism, Free Speech and Other Issues.” Utah Public Radio. Participated in an Access Utah panel discussion about the discourse surrounding patriotism and protest in the Colin Kaepernick protests. October 6, 2016.

“Our Favorite Access Utah Episodes Focused on Race in America.” Utah Public Radio. Interviewed about discussing racial inequality and prejudice. September 15, 2016.

“A Group of '54 Strong' To Explore U.S. South” Utah Public Radio. Interviewed about USU involvement in the annual civil rights pilgrimage in cooperation with the University of Washington. February 27, 2015.

“Charleston, Racism, and Black Lives.” Access Utah, Utah Public Radio. Co-hosted show on July 1, 2015.

“Raza, diferencia, y entendimiento cultural (Race, difference and cultural understanding).” Radio Universidad de la Universidad de Guanajuato, Mexico. Interviewed about how to have more effective conversations about human difference, prejudice, and privilege in Mexico. June 15, 2015.

“USU Civil Rights Pilgrimage preview” Utah Public Radio. Interviewed about USU involvement in the annual civil rights pilgrimage. February 27, 2015.

INVITED LECTURES

“Communicating Human Difference.” In USU 2160, Civic Foundations (25 students, Instructor Kate Stephens), Utah State University, February 2018.

“Contextualizing the Civil Rights Movement.” In Sociology 3010 (40 students, Instructor Paul Jacobs), Utah State University, March 2016.

“Civil Rights, Difference, and Inclusion.” In Anthropology 1010 (140 students, Instructor Francois Dengah), Utah State University, March 2016.

“Contextualizing the Civil Rights Movement.” In Anthropology 3200 (70 students, Instructor Nanda Grow), Utah State University, March 2015.

“Exploring race in America today.” In Anthropology 1010 (140 students, Instructor Francois Dengah), Utah State University, March 2015.

“Exploring the interpersonal impacts of pilgrimages.” In Art 4150 (Instructor Alexa Sand), Utah State University, March 2015.

“Effects of mass communication in a globalizing world.” In Communication 201 (450 student class, Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, February 2013.

“Intercultural issues & perspectives on interpersonal communication.” In Communication 270 (Instructor Lauren Archer), University of Washington, January 2013.

“American exceptionalism as public diplomacy.” In Communication 321 (Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, November 2012.

“American exceptionalism and anti-Americanism in U.S. global relations.” In Communication 230 (Instructor Charles Rowling), University of Washington Tacoma, May 2012.

“Advanced techniques in content and discourse analysis.” In Communication 470 (Instructor Amoshaun Toft), University of Washington, April 2012.

“United States and Mexico in cross-cultural comparative perspectives.” In Communication 478 (Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, November 2011.

“Comparative perspectives on cultural communication.” In Communication 478 (Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, May 2011.

“Intercultural pioneering for English language learners.” (Instructor Jennifer June Evans) English Language Program, University of Washington, November 2011.

“New media and the 2010 Brazilian elections.” Seattle Capital Hill Group. February 2011.

“Issues in cross-cultural adaptation for English language learners.” (Instructor Jennifer June Evans) English Language Program, University of Washington, November 2010.

“Why do (we think) they hate us?” In TCOM 430 (Instructor Divya McMillan) Department of Communication, University of Washington, Tacoma, May 2010.

“Intercultural perspectives for English language learners.” (Instructor Jennifer June Evans) English Language Program, University of Washington, April 2010.

“Foreign policy as strategic public diplomacy.” In Communication 321 (Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, April 2010.

“Intercultural conflicts in U.S. Mexico diplomatic relations.” In Communication 478 (Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, February 2010.

“Public diplomacy and the images of nations.” In Communication 321 (Instructor Natalie Debray), University of Washington, May 2009.

INTERNATIONAL FIELDWORK

Salvador, Brazil 2016 – Data collection for study on race and class in modern Brazilian society.

Mexico City, Mexico 2015 – Data collection for study on invocations of race, ethnicity and nation in Mexican presidential discourse.

Guanajuato, Mexico 2012 – Data collection for final data chapter of dissertation.

Rio de Janeiro/São Paulo/Brasilia, Brazil 2010 – Observation and data collection on the 2010 national Brazilian elections.

Guadalajara/Mexico City, Mexico 2007 – Archival research on Mexican foreign policies directed toward the United States for thesis.

Mexico City, Mexico 1997 – Interviews with Mexican politicians and political party elites for undergraduate capstone thesis.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING PROJECTS

“2017-18 USU Civil Rights Pilgrimage: King’s Road.” April 2018. I led a group of 5 students from Utah State University and two faculty—Dr. Francois Dengah (Anthropology) and Dr. Karen Senaga (History)—on an 8-day trip through the Deep South to examine the role of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in the Civil Rights Movement to commemorate the 50 years since his assassination.

“Exploring Identity Through Difference: An Immersive Experience of Race and Class in Brazil.” June/July 2016. I worked with Dr. Francois Dengah (Anthropology) and Dr. Marcus Brasileiro (Portuguese) to lead a group of 12 students to Salvador, Brazil to examine issues of race and class. The experience was project focused where students worked as researchers, student journalists, social media campaign managers, and community volunteers.

“2015-16 USU Civil Rights Pilgrimage.” March 2016. I worked on a leadership team that took 2 USU students, along with 51 other students and faculty from the University of Washington and Bellevue College, on a 10-day trip through the Deep South to examine the civil rights movement of the 1950s and 60s.

“2014-15 USU Civil Rights Pilgrimage.” March 2015. I worked on a leadership team that took 2 USU students, along with 49 other students and faculty from the University of Washington and Bellevue College, on a 10-day trip through the Deep South to examine the civil rights movement of the 1950s and 60s.

“2014-15 UW Civil Rights Pilgrimage.” March 2014. I worked on a leadership team that took 37 students and faculty from the University of Washington and Bellevue College on a 10-day trip through the Deep South to examine the civil rights movement of the 1950s and 60s.

“Election Eye 2012: Reporting From the Road on the 2012 Presidential Primaries.” January 2012. Worked with faculty from the Department of Communication at the University of Washington to take 12 students to work as student reporters on the presidential primaries in Colorado.

COURSES TAUGHT

Introduction to Global Communication (CMST 1330)

Advanced Perspectives in Global Communication (CMST 4330)

Mass Media Effects (COM 343)

Introduction to Media and Society (COM 201)

Culture and Public Discourse (CMST 3270)

Intercultural Communication (CMST 3330)
Public Speaking (COM 220)

SERVICE

USU Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Communication Studies

Search Committee Chair, position in Global Communication and Rhetoric, Fall 2017
Director of the Global Communication Major, 2014 – Present
Faculty adviser to 15 Global Communication students
Faculty adviser Global Communication practicum, 2014 – Present
-Supervised 21 completed Global Communication practicums
Global Communication major application review committee, 2014 – Present
Faculty adviser to the Global Communication Club, 2014 – Present

USU College of Humanities and Social Sciences

Member, Inclusive Teaching Practices Committee, 2019 – Present
Member, Tanner Talks Committee, 2014 – Present
Member, Social Media Committee, 2015

Utah State University

Member, Social Sciences General Education Sub-Committee, 2016 – Present

Professional Organizations

National Communication Association
International Studies Association
International Communication Association

Manuscript Reviewer

Presidential Studies Quarterly, 2018
Political Communication, 2016, 2017
Journal of International Communication 2015, 2017, 2019
International Communication Gazette, 2015
Journal of Communication, 2015
Journal of Communication Inquiry, 2015
Journalism and Mass Communication Quarterly, (Journal), 2014, 2018
Communication Research, 2014, 2017
National Communication Association, Political Communication Division, 2012 - Present
Research in Social Movements, Conflicts and Change (Journal), 2011
Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, 2010

LANGUAGES

Spanish – Fluent proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking.

Publications (fiction) in Spanish:

Gilmore, J. Arthur. La vuelta de la esperanza: un relato de la ciudad de oro. Guanajuato, Mexico: Ediciones la Rana, 2006.

Gilmore, J. Arthur. Como para. Short story published as part of the collected work Al ras del cielo. Guanajuato, Mexico: University of Guanajuato Press, 2003.

Brazilian Portuguese – Beginner proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking.

ADDITIONAL RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

News editor, journalist, language editor, 2007-08

La Voz Bilingüe, bilingual weekly newspaper in Denver, Colorado

Art director and editor, 2005-07

Metromode Magazine, LGBTQ+ magazine in Denver, Colorado

Bilingual (Spanish) grade school teacher, 1999-2001 and 2004-07

Denver Public Schools, Denver, Colorado

Instructor, intercultural communication and cultural orientation coach, 2001-04

Universidad de Guanajuato, Guanajuato, Mexico

Owner and operator, 2003-04

Spanglish Café, Libros, Arte (coffeehouse), Guanajuato, Mexico